

LWE Music Boosters

General Meeting

January 7, 2015

Secretary's Reports/Minutes

Nothing to report.

Treasurer's Report

The balance for December is $47,727.67.

Money was paid out for Winterguard fees in the amount of $550. Scrip transfers have not been made yet. Spirit wear is done for program. The boosters made $522, but had hoped to make $1000. The deficit evens out with the overage from competitive spirit wear. Money was paid out for the jazz instructor, jazz vocalists and the concert accompanist. There will be some more Winterguard expenses. The final balance is $42,087.87

The budget for marching band is within limits.

There is still approximately $13,000 to be paid out for music programs.

$3,000 still needs to be paid out for the Raffle trip to Disney.

Money should be coming in for the Home Show. Amounts not yet determined.

Ways and Means Report

Crystal Winter was not present so Carol Garcia gave the report.

SIAM - There should be another split.

Scrip - Orders and money are due tomorrow and Kathy Sons needs to get the check from district. There have been more scrip orders this year compared with last year.

Market Day - IBA Pie sale money has been distributed to the individual accounts. Market Day order deadline has been changed to Thursday rather than Friday from now on.

LW home Show - We need people to chair positions. Now is the time to start thinking about this. Anybody interested should contact Karen Bussean.

Winterguard - The LWE Home Show is set for February 8.

Pampered Chef - Money has been moved to IBA accounts.

Wreath Sale - Money is also in IBA.

Candy Sale - Probably not going to happen.

LWE Music Boosters

General Meeting

January 7, 2015

Bunny Breakfast - The breakfast is scheduled for March 28. Holly Williams will be chairing this.

Miscellaneous - The suggestion to have the "Donut Guy" for the Winter Guard Home Show and the LW Invitational was made. Pam Rymut will look into this

Business Items

There will be a Disney trip meeting at the end of February. The date will be determined at a later time. Information for the trip is being collected and room rosters have been posted for students to sign up. Luggage will be sent ahead of time via freight. Holly Williams will put together a chaperone binder and will help with medication collection. There are a few open spots for the trip. If someone is interested, please contact Carol Garcia.

Website - no new information.

Photo Website - No new information.

Member Comments

There will be several open position on the Music Booster Board next year:

- President elect
- Treasurer elect
- Ways and Means elect
- Communications

Beth McGrath reported that Aramark is no longer affiliated with First Midwest Ampitheater. Jenny Daley is checking to see if the new company will be offering the same opportunities in the future.

Carol Garcia reported that the Junior Winter Guard rehearsals are starting again next Thursday at Mokena. The Junior Guard is open to Mokena and Frankfort Junior High students. Carol noted that Mokena has been very supportive with this program and has given us rehearsal space for free. It is very nice that they are donating that space and not charging us. The Boosters are very grateful.

LWE Music Boosters

General Meeting

January 7, 2015

Staff Comments

Mr. Granger - All State is coming up the end of the month. There are 7 choir students attending. Mr. Johnson will be making several presentations at the conference. Musical practice starts next Tuesday.

Mr. Johnson - There is one student attending All State as a Future Music Educator. Band auditions for next year will be held on March 31. Students are being advised that they do not have to be in concert band or choir to be a member of the marching band or pep band. Concert band is going well. The Wind Ensemble is applying for Super State. They will be attending the Hersey Festival in April. Jazz will be at LWC this weekend and the Winterguard has their first competition in the next few weeks. The marching band show design is in the works and the competitive schedule has been set for next year and is awaiting approval.

Concert Band Step Up Night will be held on January 27th. Choir Step Up Night will be on February 2.

AP Music Theory will be offered next year.

The next General Meeting will be held on February 4 at 7:00 p.m.